Naples, September 19, N. S.

ON the 6th Inſtant the Anniverſary of the young Princeſs, who then entred into the Second Year of her Age, was celebrated at Court with great Solemnity; on which Occaſion the Miniſters, Nobility, and Military Officers appeared in rich Habits. The Preſent which the Turkiſh Ambaſſador brought from the Grand Signior to his Sicilian Majeſty, and preſented Yeſterday at his publick Audience, is ſaid to conſiſt of, a Tent of Crimſon Velvet embroidered with Gold and Pearls, with its Taſſels alſo with Pearls; a Cutlaſs worked in the ſame Manner with a String and Taſſel of Pearls; ſix Horſes with their Furniture embroidered with Jewels; ſix Pair of Piſtols and two Muskets richly ſet with Gold and Jewels; Twenty one Pieces of Perſian Brocades with Gold Flowers; three Bales of Carpets; a Quantity of Mecca Balſam; two Elephants, and four Camels; thirty Chriſtian Slaves; a Breaſt Jewel for the Queen, and a Box which the Queen is deſired to open herſelf, which makes it believed there is ſomething very precious in it. M. Borras, Commodore of the Ships of War St. Phillip and Parthenope, was this Day, by the King's Order, removed from his Poſt, for not having ſaluted, when at Conſtantinople, four French Men of War then at Anchor near the Walls of the Seraglio. The King has appointed in his Room the Knight of Malta Majo, who has already received Orders to prepare the Ship Parthenope, of which he is Commander, to conduct back to Conſtantinople the Turkiſh Ambaſſador; ſo that it is imagined that Ambaſſador will ſet out on his Return to Conſtantinople about the latter End of this Month. Letters from Rome ſay, that on the 14th Inſtant Fifteen of our Deſerters were ſtopt there and conducted to Priſon, at the Requeſt of Cardinal Acquaviva, in order to be delivered up, purſuant to the Articles of the Treaty of Accommodation between this Court and that of Rome.

Leghorn, Sept. 29. They write from Tripoly, that M. Logie, the Swediſh Miniſter, has concluded a Treaty of Peace and Commerce with that Regency on the ſame Footing as the other Chriſtian Powers. The Preſent which that Miniſter carried thither conſiſted of four Gold Watches, whereof two were ſet with Diamonds, ſeveral Pieces of Plate, China and Cloths, thirty Pieces of Iron Cannon, with Ammunition, and a Cheſt of ſmall Arms. M. Logie is gone to Algiers to conclude ſuch another Treaty, and has left M. Bareg to be the Swediſh Conſul at Tripoly. On the 27th a Courier arrived here from Milan, by way of Florence, having brought Diſpatches to General Walſeck, and ſome Remittances for the Troops.

Florence, Oct. 1. On the 17th paſt eight Soldiers of the Lorrain Regiment of Foot Guards, deſerted: The next Day two of them were taken, one of which was immediately executed, and the other condemned for ſeven Years to hard Work on the Fortifications of theſe Caſtles. On the 24th an extraordinary Council was held by the Regency concerning the Finances, and on the 26th at Night a Cabinet Courier was diſpatched to the great Duke with Remonſtrances thereupon. M. Liſoni, who for many Years paſt has reſided at this Court with the Character of Imperial Secretary, has obtained Leave to retire. On the 27th M. de Braitwitz, attended by M. Warren, Colonel of the Artillery and chief Engineer, ſet out from hence for Terra del Sole, on the Borders of the Romagna, to review thoſe Paſſages. On the 28th the Marqueſs del Monte, Jun. was declared Colonel of the new Regiment of Horſe formed out of the Militia; and M. Pandolfini, a Florentine Nobleman, was declared Colonel of the ſecond Regiment of Foot of the ſaid Militia.

Copenhagen, Oct. 3. N. S. The Eaſt India Company are preparing to ſend out two Ships to Canton for their next Venture, having hitherto had but one employed yearly in that Commerce. The Frigate called Chriſtians Oe which was ſeparated from the Iceland Squadron in the Categat, is got into a Port of Norway.

Presbourg, Oct. 4. N. S. The Plague having broke out at Peſt, over againſt Buda, whither the Court intended to go, it is now ſaid that they will go Southward beyond Gratz, if they cannot return with Safety to Vienna.

Whitehall, Oct. 13. 1741.

Whereas it has been repreſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, That on the 22d of September laſt, about Two o' Clock in the Morning, John Clarke, Servant to the Widow Blee, of St. Ann's Well, near the Town of Nottingham, was ſhot, and murthered near that Place by Perſons unknown; in Order to the diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Crime, their Excellencies are pleaſed to promiſe his Majeſty's Pardon to any one of the Offenders (except the Perſon who actually ſhot the ſaid Clarke) who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

John Couraud.
